Equal opportunities – October 4 2017

Participants: Sebastian, Carolyn, Sara, Niklas

Beginning of the term:

Tomas Gunnarsson (The Gender Photographer) had a lecture for all students and staff during the introduction week, talking about gender stereotypes in media, photography and design. Information about the equal opportunities group during the introduction week, the first school meeting and the first staff meeting of the year.

Today’s meeting:

Our first meeting with the new student representatives. We showed the website and the updated routine regarding how to act in case of unequal treatment. There is links to the website and the routine in the student handbook on the UID web.

Staff representatives will update the yearly plan of how to work with questions regarding equal opportunities – meeting set during October. Presentation next meeting when students will bring more information to the plan.

We will meet Lotta Turborn at the Art Campus library to create a collection of material of different kinds around the topic.

We will contact the researchers that analysed last year’s degree work. Do they have suggestions regarding tools staff can use to get more aware of those questions?

A student has pointed out that it is hard to find female mannequin dolls at school. We have both male and female dolls, please contact caretaker (Anders) if you need a doll.

Next meeting:

November 1, 14.00 in the sofa room
